Biographical Note

On September 14, 1963 Mary Ann and Andrew Fischer of Aberdeen welcomed America’s first set of quintuplets to survive beyond birth. The couple already had five children before welcoming Maggie, Mary Ann, Margie, Cathy, and Jimmy. The couple had one child around a year after the quints and they often refer to her as the sixth quint. After their three year contract with The Saturday Evening Post, Mary Ann kept her children out of the public eye so that they would be able to live a normal life.

Scope and Content

The formats in this collection include magazines with articles on the quints inside as well as a pin. This collection is entirely in English and is arranged chronologically into one series, AQC.
