Biographical Note

In the summer of 2009, the Brown County Landmarks Commission wanted to survey all of the churches in Brown County, South Dakota. The Commission sent out a form to every church. These forms were supposed to be returned – completed – to the Landmarks Commission. Because of a low number of responses, this survey was deemed unsuccessful.

Scope and Content

Every file (except Saint Anthony of Padua has includes a completed form including information about the church. Additionally, this collection is comprised of booklets, books, newspaper articles, and photographs returned by the churches that completed the form. This series is entirely in English. All items in the files were completed in 2009.
