Historical Note

The Northern State University Faculty Wives and Women began in 1917. It started off as a social club of 19 people who thought it would be beneficial to both faculty and students of NNIS.<sup>1</sup> In 1917 the President of NNIS was Dr. Willis E. Johnson, and his wife would organize social events for wives of the faculty men in their home and to become acquainted with each other.<sup>2</sup> Dr. Johnson's wife became the first president of the NNIS Faculty Wives Club. The Faculty Wives Club went through many changes with the various change of the college name and with supporting those who were enlisted or drafted into Wars to come. Over the years their own club name changed from NSU Faculty Wives to the NSU Women. This club offered many learning and fundraising experiences not only to faculty but to students as well. The club would use the money they raised to offer yearly scholarships that are still being provided to this day. As of 2018, there are conflicting reports as to whether the club is still active.
