Biographical Note

Leonard Feickert was born on May 26, 1921. He served as a missionary with the Lutheran Bible Translators in Sierra Leone in the late 1980s. Lutheran Bible Translators is a group that translates Bibles into languages that do not already have a Bible in that language. Lutheran Bible Translators (LBT) is an independent Lutheran organization. LBT trains and sends missionaries to advise the translation efforts.¹

Scope and Content

This small collection is arranged into one series, Sierra Leone. These items relate to Leonard Feickert's time as a missionary in Sierra Leone. This collection is left in its original order. The formats within this collection include a photograph, pamphlets, a map, and ephemera. This collection is entirely in English.
