Biographical Note

The NSC Student Association serves Northern by allocating funds for clubs and events. They also distribute funds for student-run publications like the Exponent and the radio station. The Student Association has also been involved with some campus renovations, such as the restoration of the archway built as a memorial to students and alumni who had died in World War I. The gavel in this collection was presented to the NSC Student Association by Dr. Clarke in 1976. It was used by the Student Association from 1976-2014.
